

100 Days Campaign – “Saksham Niveshak”

In line with the Investor Education & Protection Fund Authority (IEPFA), Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) circular dated 16th July 2025, Sequent Scientific Limited is pleased to launch a 100 Days Campaign titled “Saksham Niveshak”, which will be available from 28th July, 2025 to 6th November 2025. This initiative aims to proactively engage with shareholders and assist them in updating their KYC and claiming their rightful entitlements. Shareholders of Investment Sequent Scientific Limited are advised to claim their unclaimed / unpaid dividend lying with the Company to avoid transfer of the same to Investor Education & Protection Fund (IEPF).

The Company has already sent letters to shareholders along with annual report link at their last known addresses and published an advertisement in newspaper, requesting them to update their KYC details. We urge all shareholders to ensure that their bank account details and other KYC particulars remain updated at all times for uninterrupted receipt of dividends directly in their bank accounts.

For updating KYC details or for any assistance, please reach out to our RTA, KFIN TECHNOLOGIES LIMITED or the Company.
